

PETERSBURG FULL VOTE WILL BE CAST ON STATE-WIDE ISSUE

On the Qualified Voter List in Petersburg Appear the Names of 2,400 Persons.

CAMPAIGN IS VERY QUIET

Active Work Has Been Done by Both Sides, and Every One Will Be Taken to the Polls—Richmond Owls Pay Visit.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., August 15.—The names of approximately 2,400 persons appear on the qualified list of voters in this city, who will be privileged to vote in the State-wide prohibition election on September 22. This is exclusive of veterans who have not paid their poll taxes, but who, under the law, can vote, and shows that a full vote will be cast in Petersburg. That every voter for and against prohibition will be brought to the polls in sections and there is no question. Though the campaign has been a very quiet one, it has been none the less an effective one. The anti-saloon forces have heard addresses by several prominent orators, including ex-Governor Glenn and Bishop Kilgo, of North Carolina, and others are to speak before election day, while the local self-government league has as yet introduced no speakers.

Visit of Richmond Owls.
A large number of the Richmond Owls last night paid a fraternal visit to the Petersburg nest, and a pleasant social evening was spent. The Richmond visitors were met at the station by their Petersburg brothers, and to the strains of music were escorted to the lodge room, where a social session was held, refreshments served and a number of brief speeches were delivered.

Export Trade Interrupted.
The export business of this city has been affected by the difficulty of securing prompt shipments to far Eastern ports on account of the European war. Some of the manufacturers have consignments of tobacco already on the high seas, while others have had their shipments stopped. It is said that the British-American Tobacco Company has had returned several carloads of tobacco and cigarettes sent to New York for export to far Eastern ports because of the lack of transportation by foreign ships.

Sudden Death in the Night.
Sidney Johnson, a worthy colored man, died very suddenly of heart disease at his home on DuPont Street shortly before midnight last night. He was stricken and fell on the street, but managed to get home before expiring. As death resulted from a natural cause, the coroner, though notified, deemed an inquest unnecessary.

Women in Cutting Mife.
Maggie Smith and Gertrude Holloway, both colored, got into a quarrel last night on Halifax Street, the result of which was that the Smith woman was cut on the right wrist and arm and stabbed in the breast, and a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the Holloway woman. The wounds inflicted are not regarded as serious.

Baptist Evangelistic Campaign.
The Rev. A. R. Love, pastor of West End Baptist Church, will tomorrow begin a series of evangelistic services to the evangelistic campaign which is to be conducted simultaneously in all the Baptist Churches in Petersburg and vicinity, beginning the third Sunday in September. These services will be conducted by evangelists and singers associated with the Southern Baptist home mission board.

Personal and Otherwise.
William L. Zimmer and daughter, Miss Margaret Zimmer, and the latter's guest, Miss Juliet Edmond, of Florence, Italy, left last night for Mountain Lake, Va., for a two weeks' stay.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Tucker, sixteen years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Tucker, of Mechanicsville, died last night at her home in that village. She was a member of the Matinee Methodist Church and Sunday School, and leaves many friends.

At the meeting last night of Petersburg Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, several candidates were initiated, and twenty-five applications for membership were received. These services will move into its new home, the Exchange Building, on Bank Street.

E. M. Winn, of Dinwiddie County, is a patient in the Petersburg Hospital, recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

The foundation is now being laid for the new synagogue to be erected on North Market Street by the Orthodox Hebrew congregation. It is to be a handsome structure.

After an absence of seven years in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Biddle have returned to Petersburg to live.

A case of smallpox was discovered last evening in Blanford by the health department. The patient is James Stancor, recently from Goldsboro, N. C. He has been removed to the West Hospital this morning.

James T. Rapp, a well-known young attorney, formerly of Petersburg, now of Washington, has been appointed special law examiner in the Indian Bureau.

Fred Fischer, William H. Lunsford and Forrest Tucker left today for New York via the old Dominion Line. The health department has received a report from Richmond of the analysis of our city water and the spring water at Central Park both of which are reported pure.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., August 15.—Howard Clifford McWilliams, formerly of Shenandoah, Pa., and Miss Julia Oliver Williams Jones, daughter of Mrs. Philip Mallory Jones of this county, were married at 3 o'clock this evening at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church, North Garden, the Rev. The bridesmaids were Miss Marian Jones, sister of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Jones, Norman H. Barnes, of Wallingford, Conn., was the best man, and Helen McWilliams, of Philadelphia, cousin of the groom, best usher. Philip Mallory Jones and Ellis Jones, brothers of the bride, were groomsmen.

NO DELINQUENT TAX SALE NECESSARY IN LYNCHBURG.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., August 15.—Out of a levy aggregating $62,000 to pay out estate in Lynchburg for 1913 for State purposes, City Treasurer H. P. Adams has collected $61,997.74, leaving yet to be collected the sum of $2.26. When the city treasurer returned his list of delinquent taxes assessed on real estate, and the return was made to the clerk's office of the Corporation Court about a month ago, there remained uncollected the sum of $197.9. Since that the balance has been reduced to $2.26, and it is now certain that there will be no necessity for a delinquent tax sale the first Monday in January next, as provided for by State law, for by that time this balance will have been wiped out.

Complainant Wins Case.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., August 15.—Judge D. G. Tyler, adjourned the August term of the Circuit Court this afternoon, after an all-week's session. The case of E. T. Martin against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company was decided this morning in favor of the complainant. This case attracted considerable attention among the legal fraternity, as it involved the principle of the reversion of abandoned railway right of way to the original owner. Mr. Martin sued for the possession of that part of the right of way of the Chesapeake and Ohio that was sold by the original owner to the company, on condition that it would be forfeited to the former in case of its abandonment.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., August 15.—at the Dulwich Congregational Church, London, of George John Sprenth, barrister-at-law, of "The Oaks," this county, and Miss Margaret Hurlbut, of Dulwich, Angleshire, Scotland.
